Comment of the state of the sta ,

June 13th, 1914

The Vanager,

Caracian Bank of Connerce, 2 Loncard Street,

London, Fi.C.

Dear Sir':

Tar beaving for Euroce on Wonday and have left as my permanent address the Caraciar Pank of Conserce, 2 londers Street, London. Will you be good enough to take charge of any correspondence and forward it to me from time to time? If except to be at Croninger, Polland, till the first of July, and any letters sent to me there in care of the University would find me. If will let you know, however, after my arrival at Rotterdam and give you have definite information.

Yours sincerely,

Fresident.